

STORY POWER

with David Roche and Marlena Blavin

Storytelling Workshops for Families to Boost Your Communication and Advocacy Strategies!

These workshops will focus on the development of skills in the art of storytelling in a safe and supportive learning environment. From overcoming stage fright to sharpening performance skills, people will be encouraged to take creative risks and grow according to their own personal starting point.

Everyone has a story to tell based on their life experience!

9am–3pm Saturday, June 11, 2011

BACI, 2702 Norland Avenue, Burnaby

Free! Lunch and refreshments included.

To register or for more information, please call
Angela Clancy at (604) 540-8374 or email aclancy@fsibc.com
Please indicate if you have dietary requirements. Seating is limited.

More info about David and Marlena: www.davidroche.com

Co-presented by the Family Support Institute, Kickstart Disability Arts and Culture, and the BC Regional Inclusive Arts Network, with support from the BC Arts Council and 2010 Legacies Now.