

moving from
TALK to ACTION:
Youth in BC

Friday, June 17 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Vancouver Community College, Downtown Campus
250 Pender Street, Vancouver

Cost: $40 per person · Youth 25 or under are free
Refreshments and lunch provided

Registration is required. Please e-mail info@firstcallbc.org or call 604-873-8437.

Youth, youth-serving agencies, and policy makers are invited to this public forum to:

- Take stock of youth well being in BC
- Learn about engagement tools and innovative practices for advocacy with government decision-makers and educating the public on issues facing youth today
- Develop a dream campaign that will help create policy change on the issue of greatest importance to you
- Network and share with engaged young people and those working in the youth-serving sector.

First Call is a cross-sectoral, non-partisan coalition working to ensure that all children and youth have the opportunities and resources required to achieve their full potential. Thanks to the BC Government and Service Employees' Union for co-sponsoring this event.

www.firstcallbc.org twitter.com/firstcallbc